

Have you ever wondered how a 3d printer works?

First melted plastic goes through a small tube. Then goes into a valve then layer by layer add More and more layers like icing
on a cake.

For more

visit: <https://micro-control.webador.com/science-electronics>

or to sign up visit: